Additional Information

Frank CLARKE was one of six children of Joseph CLARKE, a general carrier and coal merchant, and his wife Emily.

By 1911 the family was living in Grimscote and Frank was working as a domestic gardener.

Wartime service has not been confirmed for Frank; for the army, there are Medal Index Cards for some 270 Frank CLARK(E)s, 12 of them 'Frank A.'. A relevant service record has not been identified among the few that have survived.

Frank died in late 1974, aged 79; his wife Emily pre-deceased him, in autumn 1972.
