The Schools were closed to-day to enable the children to attend an Exhibition of School work at the Corn Exchange, North^n, to which we have sent parcels of Specimens.

24 By the kindness of the Rector, and also of W. W. Adams, and of several Tradesmen who attend the Northampton Market, we were enable to send in about 50 children to the Exhibition, — all the St IV. VI, and those of the lower standards who had worked specimens or pakers. They very much enjoyed the day. We also took the opportunity of taking them to the Museum, Becket's Well, etc. — Miss MacGorr absent A.M. P.M.
